

CALIFORNIA WATER FORUM

After the 2009 Legislative Water Package: Where Are We, and Where Do We Go From Here?

February 22, 2010 | 9am to 1pm | Lecture Hall
Pacific McGeorge School of Law | 3227 Fifth Avenue, Sacramento

University of the Pacific's School of Engineering and Computer Science Natural Resources Institute, the Eberhardt School of Business, Business Forecasting Center, and the McGeorge School of Law will sponsor a one day forum to discuss the 2009 Legislative Water Package and relevant environmental research, legal, and economic issues.

Moderator: Bill Jeffery, Adjunct Professor, McGeorge School of Law

Legislation: Senator Lois Wolk, 5th Senate District of California
Assemblyman Bill Berryhill, 26th Assembly District of California
Kathy Cole, Executive Legislative Representative, Metropolitan Water District
Tim Quinn, Executive Director, Association of California Water Agencies

Economics: Dr. David Sunding, Thomas Graff Professor of Natural Resource Economics and Policy at UC Berkeley, Co-Director of the Berkeley Water Center Dr. Jeffrey Michael, Director, Business Forecasting Center, University of the Pacific

Research: Ryan Brodrick, former Director, Department of Fish and Game
Jonas Minton, Water Policy Advisor, Planning and Conservation League
Steven Phillips, Hydrologist, USGS
Rich Breuer, California Department of Water Resources

Legal Issues: Dante John Nomellini, Sr., Attorney, Nomellini, Grilli & McDaniel
Scott Slater, Attorney, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP
Stuart Somach, Attorney, Somach, Simmons and Dunn

There is no cost for this event although advance reservations are recommended. Doors open at 8:30 am. For more information and to reserve a seat please contact Margit Aramburu at maramburu@pacific.edu or 831-415-0905. For a map of the Pacific McGeorge campus see: <http://go.mcgeorge.edu/CampusMap>